Introduction

For any stage of your business from start-up to succession or sale, we provide a clear assessment of your position and possible options across a range of areas including:

- Buying or selling businesses;
- Commercial and retail leasing (landlord and tenant);
- Company and business structures including discretionary (family) trusts, partnerships, companies and sole traders;
- Reviewing the terms of a contract and explaining your rights and obligations under that contract before you commit yourself;
- Suggesting amendments to proposed contracts in order to protect your commercial interests;
- Negotiating on your behalf with solicitors for other parties so as to alter or remove terms identified as disadvantageous to your interests;
- Providing advice on what steps can be taken if someone else breaches a term of a contract;
- Assist you to prepare a response to a claim by someone else that you have breached a contract;
- Debt collection;
- Workers Liens;
- Winding up and insolvency;
- Litigation (court proceedings).

We are open late Thursday nights to ensure that we are available at a time that suits you.
